The PRC-MOVE Committee shall have the following core duties and responsibilities:

1. Act as advocates against violence, promote gender equality, and involve men of the Commission in preventing abuse and fostering respectful relationships within the agency, their families, and the communities;

2. Raise awareness about Violence Against Women (VAW) by participating in anti-VAW advocacy programs and activities of the Commission;

3. Hold discussions on masculinity and endeavor to maintain a working environment and a household where women work and children live free from harm, discrimination, and abuse;

4. Engage other men in the agency to join anti-VAW efforts and become active participants in creating a culture of respect and safety;

5. Engage in campaigns and programs focused on ending violence against women during the 18-Day Campaign to End VAW;

6. Form partnerships or collaborations with the MOVE national and other local and international groups to broaden the reach of advocacy and awareness;

7. Engage in the creation of a supportive system within the agency to establish a resource network on VAW for the provision of support to those affected by violence;

8. Develop the MOVE annual plan and program with a corresponding work financial plan for inclusion on the yearly Gender and Development (GAD) Budget and Plan of the Commission through the GAD Focal Point System Technical Working Group (GFPS-TWG);

9. Submit to the Commission, through the GFPS-TWG, an annual accomplishment report.

The Commission shall recognize MOVE as a partner in the pursuit of eradicating VAW in every place.

The members of the MOVE Committee shall undergo training on VAWC-related laws, rules, and regulations, to be facilitated by the GFPS-TWG through the Human Resource Development Division.

This Order shall take effect immediately.

For compliance.
